What's local now...

As always, our menu is over 80% local featuring seasonal food from our onsite farm and over 40 other nearby farmers, ranchers, and food artisans.

We're in the deep of winter now, and reaching deep into our reserves to keep our food as local as possible during these sparse months. We still have enough frozen green chile from Lemitar to make it through the winter; we're also relying heavily on grains, proteins and potatoes and winter greens from our wonderful year-round farms.

Out at Sol Harvest, Farmer Ric has packed his hoop-house full of chard, kale, mustard greens, and more to make it through until the spring! Ric is still harvesting his sauté greens and salad greens for us at the restaurant. We're also still drawing on a huge supply of winter squash that Farmer Ric harvested and stored for us in the fall.

In addition, we've got fresh spinach and fennel from Red Tractor Farm; arugula and kale from ARCA; sweet potatoes from Chispas Farm; and russet potatoes from Farmington, NM.

We're still butchering our own farm-raised beef, which Chef Sinclair incorporates into the menu using whole-animal utilization! We also have lamb from Roswell, NM; pork from Kyzer Farms; ground corn from Santa Ana Pueblo; green & red chile from Lemitar; cheese from Tucumcari and Old Windmill Dairy in Estancia; Heidi's Organic Raspberry Jam from Corrales; Mesilla pecans; and honey from across New Mexico. Enjoy!
