What's local now...

As always, our menu is over 80% local featuring seasonal food from our onsite farm and over 40 other nearby farmers, ranchers, and food artisans.

Summer is winding down, and as we move into fall we experience the most bountiful season of the year! Every day on our farm and around New Mexico, new items are being harvested!

Out at Sol Harvest, resident farmer Ric Murphy is bringing us squash blossoms, leeks, greens, sweet peppers, and even some okra. You are welcome to take a walk on the farm to see what's growing!

From all around the state we're getting peppers, peppers and more peppers: bell, shishito, padron and more! We've got fresh corn from Schwebach Farm, and from ARCA we have blackberries and tomatoes. From Vida Verde here in the North Valley—grape leaves, more tomatoes and herbs.

And from Ancient Waters in Ojo Caliente we've got melons, squash, tomatoes and salad greens.

We're still butchering our own farm-raised beef, which Chef Sinclair incorporates into the menu using whole-animal utilization! We also have lamb from Roswell, NM; pork from Kyzer Farms; ground corn from Santa Ana Pueblo; green & red chile from Lemitar; cheese from Tucumcari and Old Windmill Dairy in Estancia; Heidi's Organic Raspberry Jam from Corrales; Mesilla pecans; and honey from across New Mexico. Enjoy!

Executive Chef: Sean Sinclair
